

Respectful Workplace Practice

Ovintiv is committed to maintaining a safe and respectful workplace. Treating others with dignity and respect ensures a professional, healthy, and productive work environment. We respect each other as colleagues, and the stakeholders with whom we interact. Ovintiv is also committed to equal opportunity by hiring, compensating, training, promoting, and providing consistent treatment to all employees on the basis of performance.

Harassment, discrimination, bullying, violence, intimidation, and any other disrespectful or inappropriate or offensive behaviour (collectively referred to as “Offensive Conduct”) are not tolerated at Ovintiv. Ovintiv also adheres to applicable employment laws regarding non-discrimination and human rights legislation in the jurisdictions in which we operate.

This Practice applies to all employees, contractors, and directors. This Practice applies to interactions which occur on or off Company premises, including formal and informal Company social functions, conferences, stakeholder-related events, as well as interactions over the Internet, via other remote communications, or on social media sites.

Contractors are expected to develop and enforce policies or practices consistent with this Practice that will apply to their personnel in providing services to or on behalf of Ovintiv.

Any allegation of Unacceptable Conduct will be taken seriously and dealt with promptly by Ovintiv. Disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment or services, will be taken where violations of this Practice are determined by Ovintiv to have occurred.

Definitions

Discrimination: Any act, comment, or omission that results in unjust or prejudicial treatment of different categories of people. Ovintiv does not discriminate on the basis of gender, race, color, age, national origin, religion, disability, sexual orientation, marital status or any other characteristic protected by applicable law.

Harassment: Derogatory (i.e. condescending, insulting, belittling) or vexatious (i.e. aggressive, angry, antagonistic) conduct or comments that are known or ought reasonably to be known to be offensive or unwelcome, including without limitation, actions or comments directed at no person in particular but which create an intimidating, demeaning, or offensive work environment. Bullying is a form of harassment. Harassment interferes with ensuring a workplace of mutual respect for the dignity of each individual.

Sexual Harassment: Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, where:

- Submission to such conduct is made explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for decisions affecting an individual’s employment
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual’s work performance or creating an intimidating or hostile work environment

Forms of Offensive Conduct

Examples of Offensive Conduct include, but are not limited to the following:

- Abusive, lewd, profane, or demeaning language
- Threatening, bullying, intimidation, or yelling in respect of another person
- Fighting or explicit or implicit threats of physical violence
- Jokes which demean or belittle others, even where no offence is intended, such as racist, sexist, or sexual orientation jokes

Such conduct may take the form of implicit or explicit communications including the following:

- Written or electronic form (cartoons, posters, photos, calendars, notes, letters, email)
- Verbal (comments or derogatory remarks, jokes, foul or obscene language, repeated unwanted relationship advances)
- Physical gestures and other nonverbal behavior (unwelcome touching, violent altercations, hand gestures, stalking, leering)

Resolution Process

We all have a duty to report actual or suspected misconduct, including Offensive Conduct. If you believe you or another individual have experienced or have witnessed Unacceptable Conduct at Ovintiv, you are required to promptly communicate your complaint to Ovintiv to enable timely investigation and necessary corrective action to be taken by the Company as soon as possible.

Staff members who have experienced or believe another individual has experienced a violation of this Practice are therefore expected to take one of the following actions:

- Where possible, speak directly with the person(s) who is demonstrating Offensive Conduct and inform them that their behavior is unwelcome and must stop. This may be a reasonable solution in some situations, but not recommended if you are not comfortable or safe approaching the person or if the behaviors are more serious or reoccurring.
- Immediately report the Offensive Conduct to your leader, your HR Advisor, or any other leader in Ovintiv
- Make an anonymous complaint under the Investigations Practice, using the Integrity Hotline

Complaints reported under this Practice are taken seriously by Ovintiv. Ovintiv maintains such complaints as confidential, and a report of misconduct or information is only disclosed to the extent necessary to investigate or address the situation.

Filing of false or vexatious complaints is not tolerated and will be subject to disciplinary action. Ovintiv prohibits all forms of retaliation or other similar acts against any individual for filing a bona fide complaint, or assisting in the investigation or resolution of a complaint under this Practice, or exercising their rights under applicable law.
